

Social Studies
Chapter 2: Native Americans
Study Guide

Test: _____

1. The land bridge connected _____ to North America.
2. People began settling in the Americas in villages because they developed _____.
3. _____ developed a counting system that included zero.
4. The Eastern Woodland peoples were broken into Iroquoian or Algonquian based on _____.
5. The major purpose of the Iroquois League was _____.
6. After water, the most important natural resource for the Plains Indians was _____.
7. _____ was very important to the Eastern Woodlands and the Northwest Coast.
8. Native Americans living in the Arctic caused families to band together when _____.

9. We can study early life in America by studying _____.

10. To celebrate a religious event, Native Americans held

_____.

11. _____ helped Native Americans to produce more goods.

12. The _____ of the Native Americans depended on supply of food and other natural resources.

13. The _____ of the Olmec influenced the Maya.

Be able to answer the following short answers with complete sentences.

14. Why were trees more important to people of the Northwest Coast and the Eastern Woodlands than they were to the Plains Indians?

15. What other resources did the Northwest Coast people have that were important to their economy?